Who in your life could you pray for?

a friend, family member, co-worker, or neighbour.

Write down the names of three people you would like to come to know Jesus.

Set an alarm at 11:02 am as a reminder to pray daily for them, and be open and expectant to see how God might use you.

11:02
LUKE

Walk of the Cross

Fresh off our success of hosting World Day of Prayer, it is also Cornerstone's turn to host Walk of the Cross. Kathy and Mark Priddle are busy planning our route. Please speak to them for more information.

Short service and reception to follow the walk
